

Falconhurst School Newsletter

Spring 1 – Friday 3rd February 2023

Additional Dates for the Diary

As well as the usual term dates for the rest of the school year, we have some other important dates for families to put in their diaries. All of these are on Class Dojo if you wish to read about things in more detail:

Friday 3rd February – NSPCC Number Day in school ~ children can wear non-uniform and any donations brought into school will be sent off to the NSPCC to support the amazing work they do.

Monday 6th to Friday 10th February – Children's Mental Health Week focus in school with a range of brilliant activities and a final day on Friday with non-uniform. What clothes would your children wear to express themselves and what makes them happy?

March 22nd and 29th – Parents' Evening Consultations

Wednesday 29th March – Morning performance of the Year 3/4 production

Thursday 30th March – Afternoon performance of the Year 3/4 production

For other term dates this school and next, please visit our website where the information is located.

NSPCC Number Day

Well done to all of the children who looked really fantastic in this Number Day outfits today. It was great to see numbers everywhere from Birthday badges, to home-made T-Shirts and tops with football numbers on. Everybody looked gr8!!!

Some of the children have been thinking about Maths in stories. The teachers have tried to help the children realise that Maths is everywhere...hopefully they can share some of these stories with you.

Staffing Update

We shall be saying farewell to Mr Devitt at the end of this half term. It has been lovely having on our staff team since September and we wish him all the best for the future. We also send good wishes to Miss Jolliffe and hope that she soon feels better.

Isle of Wight

Families are reminded that the next instalment for the Year 5/6 residential is payable by 17th March. This should be either £175 or £125, depending on whether or not you have requested Pupil Premium support funding. Please remember that we are happy to take money in smaller instalments before the date and we can provide bank details should you wish to pay direct.

